LAND SEEKERS GO BROKE

AT GAMBLING TABLES IN GREGORY AND DALLAS, OUT IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

WAS NO LID THERE ON SABBATH

Saloons Did a Rattling Business Entire Day and Gamblers Reaped a Rich Harvest From the Land Seekers.

Dallas, S. D., Oct. 12.—It is estimated that a thousand land seekers who have come to Dallas and to Gregory have lost their money at the gambling tables and are "broke." Many more who have lost their cash have been forced to telegraph for money.

Hundreds went home as quick as they registered, but thousands remained for the drawing. These latter have in hundreds of instances been the victims of the "tiger."

The gamblers have operated their games without restraint and are said to have made remarkable winnings. They run pell mell twenty-four hours a day, with the games as strong at daybreak as when the sun sets.

To be "broke" in this country means something to a man, because he is without friends, generally, and at a time when it is hard to make friends. Every outgoing train carries men who have lost their money and are risking their lives on the brake-leams or bumpers.

There was little to indicate yesterday was the Sabbath in Dallas, saloons, though having their front doors closed, doing business all day, as well as the gamblers.

Many land seekers spent the day looking at Tripp county lands. Others watched a baseball game in the frosty air. The prairie fire west of Dallas has practically died. It is said to have burned over half of Tripp county and to have been one of the largest in South Dakota's history.

Indications are that this week's crowds will be large. It is reported here that 7,000 people intend to leave Kansas City and St. Louis for Dallas and Gregory.

FORMER SEDALIAN TO WED

Xenophon P. Willey and Miss Rosamond Guthrie.

Cards were received by Sedalia friends today announcing the approaching marriage of X. P. Willey, a former teacher in the Sedalia High school, now practicing law at St. Louis, to Miss Rosamond Guthrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Guthrie, at the First Baptist church at Mexico, Mo., on Wednesday, October 28.

A reception will be held after the wedding at 1215 South Jefferson avenue, Mexico, and the bridal couple will be at home to friends at 5085 Vernon avenue, St. Louis, after November 17.

DEATH OF MRS. GUENTHER

Sustained Paralytic Stroke and Died Soon Afterward.

Mrs. Emma Guenther, wife of J. F. Guenther, a contractor, died suddenly of apoplexy at her home, 1608 South Ohio avenue, at 9 o'clock this morning, following a stroke received two hours earlier.

She was 48 years old, and, besides her husband, leaves a sister living at Green Ridge.

Mrs. Guenther was a member of the Methodist church and also belonged to the Royal Neighbors of America.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

MR. LUMPEE DIED SATURDAY

Rev. Dr. Beggs Conducted the Burial Services There.

Frederick Lumpee, father of John Lumpee, of this city, died of gangrene at his home at Smithton Saturday night, aged 84 years. He was a native of Germany and had resided in this county for a long term of years.

He was a member of the German Evangelical church of this city, but did not belong to any lodge or society. He leaves eight children, as follows: William and Louis Lumpee and Mrs. Theresa Williams, all of Camden county; John Lumpee, of Sedalia; Henry Lumpee and Mrs. Julia Braden, of Boyler's Mills; Mrs. Elizabeth Farmer and Mrs. Anna Monness, both of Smithton.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Beggs at the German M. E. church at Smithton at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and burial was made in the Smithton cemetery.

Received a Death Message.

Mrs. Margaret Dunnigan, of 224 East St. Louis street, today received a telegram apprising her of the killing of her brother, John Shanahan, at Kansas City this morning. No particulars were given. Mr. Shanahan was 75 years old and leaves a family.

WORKING FOR $1.50 DAY

CAPT. A. C. GRIMES, WHO SPENT A FORTUNE AS DEFENDANT IN MURDER TRIAL.

KILLED MAN WHO INSULTED WIFE

Now Employed in St. Louis as a Day Laborer, While Young Spouse Has Accepted Employment in a Laundry There.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—Capt. A. C. Grimes, 74 years old, a steamboat man, civil war veteran and scout, friend of Mark Twain, who has a personal acquaintance with over 3,000 wealthy St. Louisans, and who had an independent fortune before he shot and killed Joe Hines for an alleged insult to his 21-year-old wife, at his club grounds at King's Lake, is now accepting employment at 15 cents per hour.

He has been for several days plodding about the homes in Richmond Heights, where he is doing the work of an ordinary "hired man" to support his young wife.

Mrs. Grimes, who was born 54 years after her husband's birth, in Jefferson county, Kentucky, has accepted a position with a Sixth street laundry.

Their combined salaries support them comfortably in a modest flat at 3336 South Grand avenue, but not in the way they have lived.

For the ordinary work day Capt. Grimes would earn $1.20, but, despite his 74 years, he works ten hours in order that his weekly pay might be increased.

One year ago last March Capt. and Mrs. Grimes came to St. Louis with cash sufficient to keep them the rest of their days in luxury. The club house and grounds had been sold to the Shriners for a good price, after the captain was acquitted of the charge of murder.

DIED OF HER INJURIES

Mrs. Cynthia Howell, Aged 80 Years, at Home of Daughter.

Mrs. Cynthia Howell, 80 years old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry James, 1604 South Lamine avenue, at the noon hour today from injuries received by falling and fracturing her hip two weeks ago.

Mrs. Howell was formerly a member of the Methodist church, South. Besides the daughter at whose home she died, she leaves the following children: Mrs. Mattie Saunders, Lee and Thomas Howell, all of Sedalia.

The Rev. Caskey will conduct the burial service at the home of Mrs. James at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the remains will be taken to Ottaville for interment.

PRESENT FOR MR. MADDEN

Remembered by Missouri Pacific Shops' Foremen.

T. P. Madden, formerly foreman of the Missouri Pacific ballmaking department in this city, now master mechanic of the Illinois division of the Missouri Pacific, with headquarters at Bixby, Ill., who is here to arrange for moving his family to Bixby, was presented with a set of solid silver knives and forks, also a silver carving set, by the shop foremen at the noon hour Sunday.

The silverware was purchased from Michael Bros., jewelers, and at the presentation Mr. Madden responded very appropriately, thanking the donors for their kind remembrance.

A BOOM FOR ROOSEVELT

HE IS NOW WANTED FOR PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD'S REFORM BUREAU.

IDEA OF REV. DR. WILBUR CRAFTS

Made his Announcement in the Warren Avenue Baptist Church in Boston Sunday Night—What It Is Proposed to Do.

Boston, Oct. 12.—Theodore Roosevelt as president of the world is the job the international reform bureau has set out to secure for the president executive of the United States.

The bureau has its headquarters in Washington and its program was announced last night by its superintendent, Rev. Dr. Wilbur Crafts, who preached at the Warren Avenue Baptist church.

Great as the magnitude of the task is, the positive assurance is given by Dr. Crafts that everything as planned will be accomplished.

Within a reasonable period, says Dr. Crafts, there will be an international government, with President Roosevelt as president of the world. He will act in that capacity when such a government is established at The Hague, with legislative and executive departments.

The international reform bureau has other matters and plenty of them to be attended to, and it seeks encouragement and financial support, as Dr. Crafts' address plainly showed.

"Our campaign," said Dr. Crafts, in speaking of the work of his bureau, "is fighting bad shows, is putting an end to race track gambling, is driving liquor out of government buildings and removing the rum and opium altogether."

"I believe that we shall see President Roosevelt as president of the world, and that there will be a Hague government with a legislative and executive department."

"For instance, if Venezuela refuses to submit her troubles to a conference, the nations of the conference will withdraw their diplomatic relations, and Venezuela will become like Dr. Hale's 'Man Without a Country.'"

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED

A DOUBLE HANGING FOLLOWS SUNDAY SHOOTING AT LULU, MISS.

CONDUCTOR IS FATALLY WOUNDED

Received Bullet in His Back When He Ordered Black Off His Train—Mob Was Organized in Short Order.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 12.—A double lynching closely followed a shooting affray at Lulu, Miss., yesterday, two negroes, Frank and Jim Davies, being swung to an oak tree about sundown.

John C. Kendall, conductor on the Pelena branch of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad, was perhaps fatally shot by the negroes.

The trouble occurred as the train was leaving Lulu at 3:45 o'clock last afternoon. The negroes had been drinking and were standing on the platform of the car, cursing Kendall.

Kendall ordered them into the car when their profanity was directed toward the conductor. He drew his gun and rapped Frank Davis on the head, when Jim Davis sent a bullet into the conductor's back.

Two special trains were ordered, one to bring Kendall to a Memphis hospital and the other to take the negroes to Clarksdale.

The first order was filled, but while the officers were getting out the second train, a mob of fifty or sixty men broke into the calaboose and, taking the Davies negroes out, quietly hung them.

Kendall is not expected to live.

Became Mentally Unbalanced.

Benjamin Armas, a stonemason and contractor, became mentally unbalanced on Ohio street today and caused no little commotion among pedestrians on the street. He was taken in hand by the police, and later was given in custody of Sheriff Sprecher, who locked him in the county jail, awaiting developments.

INJURED BY EXPLOSION

PROJECTILE BURSTS AT CLINTON AND MAIMS PAUL JONES BADLY.

FOUND SHELL IN A PLUMBING SHOP

Likely Left There By Some One Who Had Received It as Curiosity—The Kind Used in Rapid Fire Cannon.

Paul Jones, a young man employed in E. S. Elsner's plumbing shop, was maimed this morning by the explosion of a one-pound shell, says Saturday's Clinton Democrat.

The projectile was two weeks ago found in the soap where it had been probably left by some one who had received it as a curiosity. It was conical in shape, and was the kind of shell used in a rapid fire cannon.

Some one started to bore out the end just after it was found to use it as a plumb bob, but desisted, and on account of its weight and sharp point it has since been used as a marker to scratch on metal and rubber.

Saturday morning Jones used it to mark a lot of rubber washers. Leslie Shadwell, lineman of the Bell telephone company, came in and spoke to him.

As Jones answered, he idly tapped the point of the shell on the rubber, when it exploded into fragments, lacerating his right hand frightfully. Drs. Netherton and Derwent were compelled to amputate his thumb and first two fingers.

Both Jones and Shadwell, who was eight feet away, were knocked over by the concussion, and the latter's shin was scratched by a small piece which buried itself in the wall.

Two of the fragments went through the wall of the room, which is in the basement of the Henry County bank building.

DEATH OF MISS THOMSON

Rev. Frank Y. Campbell Conducted the Burial Services.

Miss V. V. Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Thomson, one of Pettis county's most popular and esteemed young ladies, died of Bright's disease at her home at Beaman at 6:40 o'clock Sunday morning, following an illness lasting almost four months.

For weeks she lay bedfast at the home of her brother, E. T. Thomson, in this city, but about a month ago rallied sufficiently to warrant her removal home.

Shortly afterwards she had a relapse, and grew constantly worse until the final summons called her at the hour stated.

Miss Thomson was a member of the first Baptist church, and besides her parents, leaves the following brothers and sisters: E. T., E. R., Y. P. and G. R. Thomson, Mrs. Thomas T. Rhea, of Memphis, Tenn.; L. Berta and Lillie Thomson, both of Beaman.

Rev. F. Y. Campbell conducted funeral services at the family residence at 12:30 o'clock today and the remains were taken to Smithton for burial.

Circuit Court Entries.
The following entries were made on the docket in the Pettis county circuit court today:

W. S. Shirk vs. Lillian Mc McConnell, attachment; dismissed by plaintiff.

Sedalia National bank vs. T. H. Wendleton, replevin; stipulation filed and judgment as per stipulation.

James R. Woodruff vs. D. H. Smith, equity; judgment for defendant and bill dismissed and plaintiff excepts.

DIES IN A GUARDED ROOM

RECLUSE HAD ALLOWED NO ONE TO CROSS HIS INDIANA THRESHOLD.

HAD LIVED LIKE HERMIT 26 YEARS

Odor Leads to Suspicion of His Health and Door Is Broken In—Effects in the Room Not Worth Fifty Cents.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12.—Only after death did prying eyes see inside the little room on the second floor of the block at 212 West New York street, in which Nicholas Nolan, 75 years old, lived a hermitlike life for more than twenty-six years. Nolan was found dead in the room Saturday, and when the police broke in the door they were the first persons, except Nolan, so far as known, to see the inside of the room during the time the old man occupied it.

Nolan was an eccentric old fellow who did not care for friends. He lived alone in his room, and any caller during the last quarter of a century did not get beyond the threshold. Other persons in the block wondered what the little room contained that it should be so closely guarded. The janitor time and again asked permission to enter and clean the room for the old man, but the permission was never given.

There has always been a mystery surrounding Nolan and his room. No one seemed to know anything about him except that he would venture forth during the summer months and cut grass on lawns. This was his only occupation, apparently. No one in the neighborhood knew where Nolan came from, although there were several persons who had known him during his residence in the block.

Shortly before noon Saturday some one detected an odor coming from Nolan's room and Bicyclemen Schlangen and Rodenacher were called to investigate. There were no response to their knocks for admission. Some one said no one had ever been in the room except "Old Nick" and that every one was curious to know what was inside.

The husky bicyclemen put their shoulders to the door and forced the lock. Inside lay "Old Nick" on a couch, dead. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition, indicating that Nolan had been dead several days. The police and neighbors looked about the room, and there was disappointment. There was nothing except a chair, table, cot and a bucket, the whole outfit not being worth more than 50 cents.

The mystery of Nolan's actions in guarding the room has not been explained. No valuables were found by the police, and there was nothing to show cause for the old man's whim. It was clear to the police that Nolan died a natural death, as there was no evidence to justify a suspicion of foul play. The body was sent to the city morgue in the dispensary ambulance, and Coroner Petersdorf was urged persistently by the police to get the body out of the building. Several years ago "Old Nick" remarked to a neighbor who employed him that he had a son and a daughter. He did not say where they lived.

WILL CONGRESS SEE ITS POSSI-BILITIES?

The Lakes-to-the Gulf Deepwaterway association, which has just concluded its convention in Chicago, has
in charge the greatest single project in America. The Panama canal is important. Its utility to our commerce has been questioned. It has been said, and with some force, that so far as our foreign and ocean-ocean trade is concerned, we have next to none, to pass through the isthmian ditch, and that it will help England, Germany, Japan and other trading nations far more than us.
But the cutting off of 11,000 miles of distance between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts must help shippers, no matter whose ships make the trip.
The Panama canal is important.

But the lakes-to-the-gulf waterway will surely help both the American ship owners and the shippers. It is an improvement into the heart of the continent. No foreign commerce can divide the profits while evading the expense. The lakes-to-the-gulf deep-waterway is far more important com-mercially than is that across Panama. Navally, the Panama canal is important. Perhaps that is really why we are building it. The fleets will have a short line of communication when the isthmian canal is done. It will vastly increase the effectiveness of our navy.

But the lakes-to-the-gulf deep waterway is navally important, too. The Georgian bay ship canal may one day let the British navy into the lakes. Our treaties forbid us to build warships there—and we don't want a navy on the lakes, anyhow. And yet, unlikely as war is, criminal as it would be, there it is as a possibility.

And a hostile fleet on the lakes would be a dagger in the heart of the nation—worse, if possible, than the loss of a fleet on either ocean. National wisdom and national honor demand that we make of the Mississippi and the Illinois an entrance to the lakes for our navy, too.

The most likely mistake for the congress will be that of lack of appreciation of its own problems and possibilities. A waterway deep enough for our ocean-going craft from the mouth of the St. Lawrence past Chicago and St. Louis to the gulf will sometime be built. Better build our end of it while Canada is building hers than suffer a generation of subordination to Great Britain navally, and of commercial triumph of Montreal and Port Arthur over New York, Buffalo, Duluth and Chicago.

It has been said that "fourteen feet through the valley" is all that should be asked, and that sea-going vessels will not use the waterway if made as deep as the "Soo" canal.
These are views of well posted men,
but they probably are wrong. Sea-going vessels will adapt themselves to the great opportunities of doing business in two such trades as those of the lakes and the ocean, and if they do not use a channel made by us
they will use Canada's.

COWHERD A SURE WINNER.

When Herbert Hadley opened his campaign here, says the Springfield Leader, he made it plain that he relied chiefly upon his charges of fraud at the St. Louis primary election to defeat William S. Cowherd. For a short time these charges may have had some little effect, but when Mr.
Cowherd was heard in his own defense, Hadley's issue of assumptions proved to be a cobweb of his own spinning. There were frauds in St.
Louis; that much is true. But in those frauds republican election officials participated as well as democrats, and they were not perpetrated for the benefit of candidates for governor so much as to secure the nominations of local men for city offices.
Mr. Cowherd and every other man on the democratic state ticket was nominated by a majority of democrats who voted throughout the state, even if the vote cast in St. Louis was entirely excluded from the count.
Moreover, Mr. Cowherd is opposed to fraud at elections, primary or final,
and will do what he can to punish it if he is elected governor, as he will be.

Another baseless charge was exposed by Mr. Cowherd in his speech here on the 3rd instant. He indiscriminately repudiated the accusation that he and his friends had raised $25-000 to be used in the primary election in St. Louis for the purpose of influencing the voters and defied Mr.
Hadley to prove the charge. Hadley has not been able to do so, and has not even tried to do so. On the other hand, Mr. Cowherd did prove, and that by the official records of the legislature of Missouri, that Herbert Hadley was a beneficiary and a grateful one, of the enormous corruption fund raised by the St. Louis brewers in 1904. That fund helped to elect Hadley, along with the other republican state officers, and, as attorney general, Mr. Hadley later refused to prosecute the Anheuser-Busch Brewing association for contributions, as a corporation, to a campaign fund. Mr.
Hadley made the excuse that the contribution was an individual, personal affair, but Adolphus Busch's own sworn statement was that he had given $10,000 as his personal contribution, while the brewing association had given $2,500. This puts Mr. Hadley in a very embarrassing position, and with all his ingenuity he has not wriggled out of the difficulty. As a matter of fact, he can not do it, except by proving that Busch perjured himself before a committee of the Missouri legislature.

The progress of the campaign has amply demonstrated that William S.
Cowherd is frank, manly, courageous man. He has met every charge made against him by Hadley in the most complete and convincing manner, and has retaliated by giving that gentleman some subjects for explanation,
that will more than keep him busy until November 3, if he does not entirely ignore them—which is more than likely.

Mr. Cowherd is making a fine impression on the voters wherever he goes. When they see and hear him they soon decide that he is a man worthy to occupy the highest office in the state. The enthusiastic support which Mr. Cowherd is receiving from Kansas City and Jackson county, where the people know him best and longest, is a sterling tribute to the worth of the man.

HICKS
THE GROCER

BRYAN TO GET OWN STATE

WILL CARRY NEBRASKA BY 15,
000 VOTES. IT IS NOW CLAIMED.

THE OMAHA BEE'S VERY BAD BREAK

Visit of Taft Did Not Change Any Votes, Owing to Republican Candidate's Total Lack of Personal Magnetism.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—Preliminary polls made by the democratic state committee justifies the putting forth
of the claim that Bryan will carry Nebraska by 15,000 votes. Owing to the expense involved, no attempt has been made to make a thorough canvass of the state as to the political predilections of the voters, but enough representative, scattered precincts were included to make the result of value.

The polls corroborated the early reports to the effect that Bryan had made distinct gains in the towns, but had not been so successful in the farming communities, the gain in the former being about three times as much as in the latter.

The comparison was made with the vote of 1906, when Bryan lost the state by 8,000. There are 1,600 precincts in the state, and the average gain is fifteen to the precinct.

The visit of Taft to the state has not changed any votes, but the vigor of the demonstration at Lincoln has lent heart to the republican campaign, which was pretty badly in the dumps because of crossed wires
among the managers.

Will Hayward dropped out as chairman to become secretary of the national committee, and his successor, J. Warren Keifer, jr., a son of the former speaker of the national house, proceeded to get into a row with the secretary, Frank P. Corrick. The result was that Corrick dropped out. So the campaign is in new and inexperienced hands.

The bitterness in Lincoln felt by the rampant republicans toward Bryan in every campaign was responsible for the extraordinary effort made to make the Lincoln demonstration for Taft a warm one. It was successful, but the candidate failed, by reason of his lack of magnetism, in making any such inroads on the Bryan sentiment here among republicans, as had been hoped for.

To add to the discomfiture of the republican managers, the Omaha Bee,
which is edited by Victor Rosewater, member of the republican national executive committee, and head of the publicity bureau, came out the other day in an editorial denouncing the republican tariff plank as claptrap, intended to catch votes and incapable of enforcement. The editorial was the result of a wonderful break by the man in charge during Rosewater's absence. He saw in the Boston Transcript an editorial taken from the Portland Oregonian, the writer of which somehow got the impression that this plank was an utterance of Bryan.

The unfortunate man on the Bee did not recognize it as a part of the republican platform, but in the full belief that Bryan really did say that new tariff legislation ought to guarantee a reasonable profit to the manufacturers, he proceeded to tear it to pieces, on the theory that if Bryan said it it was bad doctrine.

The republican papers in the state were prompt to repudiate what the Bee said; Rosewater wired frantically that it did not represent his sentiments, the democratic press howled with glee, and Mr. Bryan took occasion several times, in speeches and statements, to commiserate and to agree with the Bee editor as to the character of the republican plank.
The Bee has been silent as the tomb ever since, no being in a position to explain, and its editorial columns are devoted to discussions of such trenchant topics as "The Cost of Bad Roads," "Jury Fixing," "Directors
Who Direct" and the like.

The Bee break is admitted to have undone about all the work that has been accomplished recently by the republican managers.

The chief difficulty with the republicans is in defending the big appropriations of last year and the fact that under the four year reassessment of property the big increase is borne by the farmers, while the railroads will pay less taxes because their assessment remains almost the same.

The democrats propose a reform by going back to the precinct assessor system as a substitute for the election of assessor by the entire county.
While there is doubt as to whether Gov. Sheldon can be beaten for re-election, because of his popularity,

the fact that about half of the repub-

LABOR OPPOSES TAFT

Railroad Men Can't Forget Ohioan's Treatment of P. M. Arthur.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—Fred L. Feick, of Indianapolis, chairman of the American Federation of Labor's legislative board in Indiana, passed through St. Louis on his way from Indianapolis to Kansas City and Omaha. Mr. Feick's following the late itinerary of William H. Taft and is addressing various brotherhoods of railroad men. Mr. Feick says New York, Indiana and West Virginia bitterly oppose Taft on account of his decisions in the case of the Ann Arbor railway vs. the Pennsylvania railway, when P. M. Arthur, with his followers, appeared before Judge Taft asking for a trial by jury. "Can any man," said Mr. Feick, "forget that day when the grand old man, P. M. Arthur, the father of all railroad unions, the man who blazed the way for all labor unions and showed the workman that his only hope for decent conditions and fair treatment lay in organization, appeared before Judge Taft and asked for a trial by jury? He was told in a peremptory manner that the court felt able to handle the case without the assistance of a jury."

"Can they forget the insolent, contemptuous and sneering manner in which he branded this devoted and representative body of American laboring men as a band of conspirators? Can there be a shadow of doubt among railroad men as to who in this crisis is the safe man?"

Mr. Feick said further that the opposition to Vice Presidential Candidate Sherman was as bitter among railroad men as it was toward Taft, especially because as congressman in the Fifty-ninth congress Sherman agreed to the amendment to the Hepburn bill which deprived railroad men of accepting passes for themselves and families. Mr. Feick said that the railroad men spent over $100,000 to defeat that amendment.

On his return from the west Mr. Feick will arrange for a big meeting of Railroad Brotherhood Trainmen in East St. Louis. He said it was possible that the majority of those who would attend the meetings from the various railroad unions were erstwhile republicans who were going to vote for Mr. Bryan.

FOUGHT A MANIC IN AIR

THREE POLICEMAN AND A MADMAN STRUGGLED ON A BRIDGE TOWER.

EXCENSUS SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Crowds on the Williamsburg Structure Saw the Contest on a 10-Foot Platform 332 Feet Above East River.

New York, Oct. 12.—Upon a platform ten feet square and 332 feet up in the air, with no coping, rail or other protection, three policemen and Joseph Krabe, a powerful maniac armed with a razor, fought last afternoon. Thousands of persons looked on from the promenade of the Williamsburg bridge and its Brooklyn approach.

Krabe, who is about 35 years old and weighs 150 pounds, had started the persons on the bridge by darting suddenly from the promenade and starting to walk along one of the big cables leading to the top of the Brooklyn tower.

The policemen, Smith, O'Donnell and Dowling, who were near the middle of the bridge when the man started on this walk, went after him, but he managed to reach the top of the tower and was about to jump into the river when the foremost policeman caught him. Then the struggle began. The four men looked like little, black imps silhouetted against the sky, indulging in some made dance or darning play upon their lofty perch. The three standing together against the one several times barely escaped a fatal fall into the river.

For several minutes the crowd watched the fight, expecting to see one or more of the men fall, and then one of the men suddenly jerked to his knees and fell flat. The spectacle was over, for all of the figures quickly disappeared as though a trap door had suddenly been sprung beneath them, but the drama was not yet acted out.

Down the unprotected spiral stairway of 250 feet leading to the floor of the bridge, the three policemen tried to carry the unconscious form of the madman, who had sunk under a blow on the head from a Billy. They had made only a few steps when the man regained consciousness and all his maniacal fury returned.

His struggles almost threw the three policemen headlong from the stairs, and one whom he had kicked in the stomach saved himself by clutching the stairs after he had fallen several steps. All the way down to the floor of the bridge the struggle continued. At the foot of the stairs the maniac fainted.

AMUSEMENTS

SEDALIA THEATER.

John Emmerson Roberts, who appears at the Sedalia theater tonight, does not encourage belittling a man, in fact, belittling the belief of no honest man, and sees some good in every man, in every creature, in every atom and every moment of existence, he is teaching the beautiful and helpful human philosophy of the life of this world, believing fervently in the existence of a great and unknown God, believing in the existence of a soul life that will in all probability live in many lives to come, believing in the hour that is now here and the life that is now with us, this great shining light, this warm human soul, this powerful poetic human personality shines in all its wonderful intensity, giving creative rays that start into life and nourish into nature and rugged being the new conception of this frail and fleeting existence called human life.

His subject, "The Immortality of the Soul," will be grand to hear.

"Three Twins."

The "Three Twins," which comes to the Sedalia theater Saturday matinee and night, with the full prestige of a metropolitan success behind it, having run five months in Chicago at the Whitney opera house, and eight months in New York at the Herald Square theater, and which received the unanimous praise of the entire New York press as being one of the smartest musical plays produced in years. Joseph M. Galtres has spared no expense in the mounting of this attraction, costuming is gorgeous, scenery is magnificent, the electrical effects bewildering. The finale of the first act is said to be one of the most elaborate pieces of mechanism that has ever been placed on the stage. It shows an aerial circular swing, with six beautiful show girls in baskets, while revolving the swing is illuminated with 2,000 incandescent lights, making a gorgeous spectacle.

"The Sunny Side of Broadway."

As the title suggests, "The Sunny Side of Broadway," in which those famous originals, Murray and Mack, are starring this year, the stage settings are of metropolitan scenery and are said to be most elaborate. The first act shows the circle at Fifty-ninth street, with beautiful Central park in the background, and the second, the campus grounds at Yale university. The scenic effects will prove very elaborate to local theatergoers who have never visited the metropolis, and very realistic to ones that have.

GIRL SLAYER CONFIDENT

MISS JOHNNIE DAVIDSON, NEWTON COUNTY, CHARGED WITH BOY'S MURDER.

PLACED ON TRIAL AT NEOSHO, MO

In Face of Ill Will, Young Woman Says Jury Will Free Her—Sister's Testimony Expected to Be Sensational.

Neosho, Mo., Oct. 12.—Upon the eve of her trial, Miss "Johnnie" Davidson, the 19-year-old heiress to $40,000, who is charged with the murder of Roy Ramsour, her sister's discarded suitor, expressed herself as confident of acquittal, regardless of the seemingly overwhelming ill will of Neoshoans.

"Twelve men will, I feel sure," said Miss Davidson last night, "decide that man cannot hurl explosives at a woman."

Counsel for the state and defense last night announced readiness for trial when the Newton county circuit court is convened at 9 o'clock this morning.

W. N. Andrews, of Joplin, formerly prosecuting attorney of Jasper county, with a record of 473 convictions out of 477 cases tried, stated last night that the state would introduce new evidence that Miss Davidson had deliberately slain Ramsour on the lawn.

George R. Clay and former Congressman M. E. Benton, representing the defense, last night declared Miss Grace Davidson, sister of Johnnie, would be their star witness.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Thirty-Six Years Ago Today Her First Husband Was Buried.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Humphrey, who died Friday night, was held from the home of deceased's son, J. W. McRorey, Ohio and Pettis streets, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. J. F. Caskey, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, officiating. Burial was made in Crown Hill cemetery.

In writing an account of the death, the name of Mrs. Susan Westenburg, a daughter, was inadvertently omitted from the list of children.

The following will serve as pallbearers: C. W. Kullman, C. Jones, C. M. Sheets, James Ellis, Tamas Estes and J. S. Ridenour.

A coincidence in connection with the burial of Mrs. Humphrey is that her first husband, Ludrick McRorey, was buried on October 12, 1872, just thirty-six years ago today.

DENIES DIVORCE CHARGE

REVEREND E. Q. DENHAM, PLEASANT HILL, CO-RESPONDENT IN NEW YORK SUIT.

TENSE DRAMATIC SCENE IN CHURCH

Declares He Did Not Hypnotize Mrs. E. Barto Hall—Says Name Is Ruined—Assigned As Pastor Sunday Forenoon.

Pleasant Hill, Mo., Oct. 12.—The Reverend E. Q. Denham, former pastor of one of the Christian churches in New York City, but for the past four months a minister in charge of the First Church of Christ of Pleasant Hill, and who was named as co-respondent in the divorce case recently brought by, and decided in favor of E. Barto Hall, Long Island, N. Y., clubman and millionaire, yesterday made a statement from his pulpit in regard to the charges.

Mrs. Hall, at the time of the divorce trial in New York City, alleged as her defense that the Reverend Mr. Denham had hypnotized her, and that she, while under the influence of this spell, had been forced to travel about with him, as his wife. She said, on the stand, that she had been unable to break this spell, and that she had been obliged to do Mr. Denham's bidding against her will. Her husband recently was granted a decree of divorce.

The church auditorium was filled yesterday.

There had been prayer by the minister and an eloquent plea for guidance, and a sermon on the topic of "Lives That Lilt."

At the close, and as the last strain of "Washed in the Blood of the Lamb" died away, a dramatic hush fell upon the congregation. Then there began a most remarkable scene.

The white-faced preacher, "not before his people as before a jury, but simply that they might know," began the story of the train of circumstances, ever maintaining his innocence.

Mr. Denham, who is about 40 years old, went back to the beginning of his acquaintance with the Halls while pastor of a church near their summer home in a Florida village, and reviewed the trend of events which took him to New York, where he was again in touch with the Halls though they were not church members, and finally westward to Pleasant Hill as minister of the church at that place.

Point by point he dwelt upon the things which have been charged to his account, defending his name with desperate courage, and speaking in an even tone. He controlled his emotions, but there was a breaking point.

"I know, however," he declared, shaking with emotion, "that my name and reputation have gone, and that I must leave the work because I would not be a burden upon this church. I know there has been unkind and unjust criticism by some who did not know, or who, I do not use the word, ventrally, were malicious of spirit."

"But, between God and myself it is well, for he knows that my hands are clean of the infamous charges. I would rather stand as I am with what is, to the world, a blackened and ruined life, than to be one of those which have, like vultures, flocked about to dabble in the rotten mess, and to spread the news for the mere sake of pleasure."

As he announced that, therefore, with this evening's sermon, his work as pastor here would terminate, and that he would go forth in his effort to clear his name, his voice trembled and broke into a sob.

If there had been any doubt as to the view of the matter taken by the members of his church, it was quickly dispelled as the congregation flocked toward the chancel rail and grasped the minister's hand. Both men and women, hardly without exception, wept audibly and each had some kindly word. The minister, more and more affected by the spontaneous testimonial of faith, gave way to tears.

Mr. Denham began his ministerial work here four months ago. Shortly after he came here the Hall suit was filed and he was named as co-respondent and charged with having eloped with Mrs. Hall. Dismissing the charge that he had hypnotized Mrs. Hall, with the remark that those here and elsewhere who had known him for years, knew that he had no such power, he made a countercharge that when Mrs. Hall returned to New York she was put in charge of two professional hypnotists, to whom the alleged confession embroiling the minister, was made.

Half-Minute Store Talk

BARGAINS

Pity so good a word is so much misused. There are real bargains and they are worth watching for. Of course, no store can sell nothing but bargains. Be sure the store which tries to make you believe everything offered is underprice, is a good store to avoid. Perhaps a tenth of the goods made for sale get into the wrong hands, and to right them somebody has to make a sacrifice. Then a very real bargain is possible. To this store, with the greatest regular business, naturally come the most of such chances to buy goods underprice, and to sell them the same way.

The American Climate.

On Shochun of the Chinese embassy on a sultry evening in Cape May condemned the American climate.

"It is much worse than the climate of China," he said. "It is perhaps the worst climate in the world. And yet you can joke about it."

"A physician joked me about it the other day."

"Accustom yourself, Mr. On Shochun," he said, "to our climate's ways. Our winters are arctic, our summers are subtropical. And very often our climate gets mixed, and arctic days and subtropical ones alternate. Inure yourself, like me, to these changes. In summer and winter sleep with four blankets."

"You do?" I gasped.

"I do. In summer," he added, "I put them under me!"

THE ITALIAN FARMERS

THEY HAVE BECOME TRULY SUCCESSFUL TILLERS OF AMERICAN SOIL.

BLACK HAND VARIETY AS BOGY MEN

Alice Bennett Prepares Article for the Charities and Commons Press Bureau in New York City.

(BY ALICE BENNETT.)

Exclusive Service Charities and the Commons Press Bureau.)
New York, Oct. 12.—The Italian as a farmer! He is thought of as a day laborer, a fruit vender, a member of a section gang, a "black hand," but not often as an agriculturist.

But, nevertheless, any individual or group interested in developing the farming districts of the United States would do well to study the Italian confadini as a valuable contribution to the farming industry. Such investigation need not involve a journey to Italy, as there are numbers of Italian truck and fruit farms scattered over New England, and in close proximity to New York City, as well as here and there through the south and west. These farms prove beyond any question that as an extensive cultivator of the soil the Italian can not be beaten.

Near South Glastonbury, Conn., are about seventy farms owned by Italians. The first pioneer of this interesting colony was John Carino, who came to South Glastonbury sixteen years ago to cut railroad ties for the New Haven and Hartford railroad. At the end of two years he had saved enough to purchase a small farm and send for his family. Every member of the family toiled early and late until the place yielded income enough to enable him to buy more land, and now, fourteen years from the date of his first purchase, Mr. Carino owns 1,500 acres, all, with the exception of a small wooded portion, under the highest cultivation. There are peach orchards and peach orchards, apples, plums and pears. Grapes are grown in quantities and also a variety of small fruits and vegetables.

This year, if nothing unforeseen occurs, he expects to market 20,000 bushels of peaches. His two eldest children are attending school in Hartford, and no doubt will go to college later.

Some twelve years ago J. H. Hale, of South Glastonbury, (the largest peach grower in New England), decided to employ an Italian, one Luigi Piro, on his place. The neighbors shuddered and prophesied a tragic end of the entire Hale family.

Today this same Luigi Piro is a partner with Mr. Hale in one of the most unique orchards ever grown in America. As time passed Mr. Hale grew more and more to confide in Piro's judgment, so that when he advised converting a 400-acre lot (which had always been considered by Americans "too difficult" to grow anything on) into a combination peach and apple orchard, Mr. Hale decided to take the plunge. It required a great deal of blasting to dispose of the rocks and stumps, but that accomplished, the soil was absolutely virgin and ideal for fruit growing. Between the apple trees are planted peaches. The space allows for a twenty-year growth of the peach trees, when they will have finished bearing for market purposes. By the time the apple trees will have matured so as to require more room, the peaches will be removed. After the product of this orchard has reimbursed Mr. Hale for his outlay, with 10 per cent interest, he will deed one-half of it, or 200 acres to Piro. He prophesies that this will be accomplished within ten years, and that he and Piro will then each own an orchard worth $50,000, over and above all cost. "Luigi said it would grow like h—l," exclaimed Mr. Hale, "and by Jove, he's right."

The natives around South Glastonbury speak well of the Italians as neighbors, although in the beginning they had to make their way against a wall of Yankee prejudice. They are anxious to give their children educational advantages. At Matson Hill, South Glastonbury, stands a little white school house which will serve as an illustration. In Connecticut the country schools are assessed by the taxpayers, so that the apportionment for school tax is voted by the men who pay it. In a New England farming district, such as we are describing, the results in former years were obvious. The school house was little better than a ruin. The roof leaked, the windows were broken and it needed paint. Year after year a meeting was called to consider its restoration, but any such proposition was regularly voted down. Gradually, however, the Italian land owners gained in strength and the moment they controlled the majority vote they demanded a new school house. Many of them contributed lumber from their farms and more gave their services towards its construction.

There are now thirty-two children who attend this school, thirty of them Italians. A young American girl is teacher. She enjoys teaching the young Italians, and the parents can not do enough to express their appreciation for the effort she is putting into the work. In winter the men turn out and shovel a path for her through the woods, cutting off a detour of about two miles she would otherwise have to walk.

And now for the "boggy man," the treacherous Italian of tradition, concealing a stiletto in one pocket and a bomb in the other, ready to do you with one or both on the slightest provocation. Like the little darkey in bed, when you turn down the blanket, "I reckon him not dar."

PRIEST IS ST. JOE JAIL

Father Daniel Pembroke May Be Tried as to His Sanity.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 12.—Clothed in his priestly habiliments and vainly endeavoring to solve his predicament, Rev. Fr. Daniel Pembroke, former priest of St. Patrick's parish of Maryville, Mo., spent a night in a cell at Central police station here. He is held for investigation as to his sanity. His arrest was at the instigation of Bishop Maurice T. Burke, of the St. Joseph diocese. Bishop Burke says that Pembroke has been annoying him for ten or twelve years.

According to the story told both by Bishop Burke and Fr. Pembroke, Pembroke's parish was taken away from him about eleven years ago. Pembroke says that he was never legally discharged from his parish and that by right it is still his. He furthermore states that he has a case pending in the ecclesiastical courts at Rome against Bishop Burke, wherein he brings counter charges against the bishop and a suit for $20,000 back salary and damages in the amount of $80,000.

Bishop Burke has letters, said to have been written by the deposed priest, in which he is threatened with exposure for alleged crimes.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Brise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

GODDARD SOON TO BE FREE

His Sentence of 20 Years, Commuted to 10, Ends October 22.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 12.—Jefferson D. Goddard will be released from the state penitentiary on October 22 after serving ten years of a twenty-year sentence in that institution for the murder of Frederick Jackson in Kansas City.

Dr. Goddard was convicted in the Cole county circuit court on a charge of venue from Jackson county of murder in the second degree and his punishment fixed at twenty years in the penitentiary. Dr. Goddard has been a model prisoner and has been useful as assistant to the prison physicians in the hospital of the greatest penal institution in the country.

His work has been so good as well as his prison record that Governor Dockery cut the sentence down to ten years and that term will have been completed on October 22, when Dr. Goddard will walk from the institution a free man.

Dr. Goddard is one of the few criminals who repaid the state in cash the cost of the prosecution which amounted to several thousand dollars.

A BALLOON FELL 4,000 FEET

But the Gas Bag Formed a Parachute
and Saved the Occupants.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The American balloon conqueror, an entrant in the James Gordon Bennett race, fell 4,000 feet yesterday, but neither of its occupants, A. Holland Forbes and Augustus Post, was injured.

Less than two minutes after the balloon started the silk gas bag burst,
but it spread out and formed a parachute after a fall of 2,000 feet, thus checking the fall. The basket crashed through the tile roof of a building and the occupants landed in an attic occupied by an old man.

HON. W. A. ROTHWELL DIES

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMIT-TEEMAN SUCCUMBS TO BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

HON. JAMES REED TO GIVE EULOGY

Illness of More Than a Year Forced Trip to Florida Last Winter—
Chairman Mack Wires His Condolence.

Moberly, Mo., Oct. 12.—Will A.
Rothwell, Missouri's member of the national democratic committee, died at his home here Sunday morning at 5:50 o'clock of Bright's disease. He had been ill more than a year.

Last November, acting on the advice of his family physician, he spent the winter in Florida. He returned in April, believing his health had been satisfactorily improved.

Mr. Rothwell was 46 years old. He leaves a widow, mother and one sister. Burial will be at 3 o'clock today in Oakwood cemetery in this city.

James A. Reed, former mayor of Kansas City, has accepted an invitation to deliver a eulogy at the grave.

In his speech at Moberly Saturday,
W. J. Bryan referred feelingly to Mr.
Rothwell's illness, paid a tribute to his long and faithful party service and expressed the hope that he might be spared for further usefulness.

Mr. Rothwell was elected democratic national committeeman four years ago, and was re-elected this year at the Jefferson City convention which selected delegates to the national convention at Denver. He attended the Denver convention, but took no part in the proceedings.

For many years Mr. Rothwell was a leading lawyer of Randolph county,
but his health forced him to abandon his practice some time ago. He has always taken a keen interest in politics, and in 1892 was elected chairman of the democratic state committee, a position which he filled with such distinction that his election as national committeeman was a natural sequence.

Mr. Rothwell always has been an admirer of William J. Bryan, and four years ago enjoyed the confidence of the presidential nominee.

Some years ago Mr. Rothwell was prosecuting attorney of Randolph county, and also represented the county in the legislature of 1895.

Mack Expresses Sympathy.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Word was received by Chairman Mack here last night of the death at Moberly, Mo.,
of Democratic National Committeeman W. A. Rothwell. Mr. Mack appointed the following committee to attend the funeral at Moberly tomorrow:

National Committeeman J. W. Tompkins, of Alabama; Roger Sullivan, of Illinois; Guy B. Tucker, of Arkansas; R. E. Mountcastle, of Tennessee;
A. A. Jones, of New Mexico;
Dr. L. P. Hall, of Nebraska, vice chairman of the national committee;
Grey Woodson, of Kentucky, secretary of the committee; Moses C. Wetmore, St. Louis, chairman of the finance committee, and John I. Martin, of St. Louis, sergeant at arms.

Mr. Mack sent his sympathy to the family.

Mr. Mack will leave for Buffalo
next Friday, where he will register on the following day, leaving for New York Sunday night.

Pennsylvanian Killed His Wife and

York, Pa., Oct. 12.—William Ben-

He then reloaded his shotgun and drove to state hill, where, in the presence of a dozen or more persons,
he shot and killed himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennington had been married ten years. They had never gossip of neighbors caused the hus-

CIRCUS MAN IS SUED

Daughters of "Uncle John" Robinson
Ask Share of Estate.

Cincinnati, Oct. 12.—John F. Robinson, millionaire circus owner, has been made defendant in suits brought by his daughters for an accounting of their mother's estate.

The suits are a sequel of Mr. Robinson's marriage to his nurse while in Clarksville, Tenn. Mrs. Caroline Stevens and Mrs. Pearl A. Lanikin demand an accounting, the payment of $225,000 said to be due as dividends of their mother's estate and the trans-ference of all holdings in their names.

Mr. Robinson was married to Miss Maud Logan in Clarksville, Tenn., September 22. He is 63 years old and his bride is much younger. She was a trained nurse and had been in constant attendance upon him.

At the time of the marriage she was accompanying him in his travels with the Robinson circus. They had made an attempt to be married in Hopkinsville the day before the ceremony, but the clerk would not issue them a license.

ALL-STEEL PASSENGER CARS ARE ADOPTED FOR THE TRUNK LINES.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

After sixteen years of trial the all-steel railway car has at last established itself among American railways. Two of the largest railway systems in the United States, the Pennsylvania and the Harriman, have adopted the all-steel car as their standard, and their action may be taken as inaugurating a new era in the transportation history of this country.

Statistics show that a very large percentage of the accidents which occur yearly would not have occurred or at least that their results would have been far less disastrous had the cars been constructed of some material that would have successfully withstood the shock of contact.

At present there are 1228 all-steel cars in use in the passenger service of the steam and electric railroads of the United States, but their number will grow now on rapidly increase.

The Pennsylvania has 208 all-steel cars, the New York Central 191, the Long Island 195, the Erie 4, Southern 3, Illinois Central 17, Southern Pacific 3, Frisco 27, New York, New Haven & Hartford 2, Pullman company 1, Hudson & Manhattan 50, New York and Queens county 40, Metropolitan Elevated of Chicago 1, Philadelphia Rapid Transit 30, and Boston Elevated 40 cars.

Whistle Signals as a Safeguard.

An innovation in the customary methods of the railroad signaling system has recently been adopted in the yards of the Washington Terminal company by the installation of whistle signals as an additional safeguard against accidents. The whistles are located on the signal bridges across the tracks and are intended for use in cases of emergency should any of the other signals get out of order. In the event of this occurring the engineer receives instructions by means of sharp whistle blasts, one long blast taking the place of a red light and indicating "stop" to all trains within the limits of the interlocker.

Two short blasts are a signal for trains having correct signals to proceed, and three short blasts are a command for trains to back up. The whistles are also used to call repair men, four short blasts being a call for them to report at the tower.

George W. Martin, superintendent of the Terminal company, reports that the whistle signals materially aid in the safety of operation of trains in the yards.

One Road Short of Help.

Traffic conditions of the Wisconsin Central road have improved to such an extent of late that the road now is suffering from a shortage of men.

When the depression set in last year it was necessary for the Wisconsin Central, in common with all other roads in the country, to lay off its extra men, and many of its regular forces had to be transferred to the extra list, with only intermittent employment.

Business now has picked up so that these extra men have got back their old places on the regular list, and new men are being hired as fast as they make their appearance.

The improvement is due chiefly to the movement of wheat over the road. It is coming from the west and northwest. There also is a large movement of coal in the opposite direction.

Fairbanks to Build Line.

Luther M. Fairbanks, brother of Vice President Fairbanks, has obtained valuable railroad, mineral, banking and land concessions in Honduras and will begin shortly in the construction of a railroad in that republic up the Aguan valley, from Truxillo to Tegucigalpa, a distance of about 300 miles.

The estimated cost of the line is $2,000,000. It will be the first modern, up-to-date, standard-gauge road in Central America. The valley of the Aguan is the only one in the country which is without many rivers, canyons and other obstructions to railroad building.

It is expected that the line will be completed within six years, although the terms of the proposed concession allow thirty years, the demands for construction being at the rate of about ten miles a year.

Montenegro Prince Sends Bellicose
Message to National Assembly.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Oct. 12.—The Montenegrin national assembly opened here today in extraordinary session. The war fever resulting from the annexation by Austria-Hungary of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which already is running high, has been strengthened by a bellicose message to parliament from Prince Nicholas, who declared that the annexation of these two provinces has inflicted a crying wrong upon the people of Montenegro and that they were prepared to sacrifice their last drop of blood unless the peaceful endeavors now on foot resulted in righting this grievance. The message was received by great demonstrations of approval from the assembly and populace.

G.H. Ayers

Presents His Platform to The Voters of Pettis County.

I appreciate the fact it will almost be impossible to be elected to the very important office of Sheriff of this county without the aid and votes of both the Republicans and Democrats, and to them especially, and to the voters of all other parties in general, this is directed.

I will pledge myself, if elected to this office, to the following, which is the only platform I have:

MY PLATFORM

I will be the Sheriff in fact as well as in name and not delegate the duties to hirelings.

There will be no grafting of any description in the Sheriff's office during my administration.

My full time and attention will be given to the duties of this office to the best of my ability.

There will be no partisanship in the fulfillment of my duties, and I will be Sheriff—

"Representing not one class of people,"
"But all classes of the people."

For a clean and upright administration of the Sheriff's office in this county, I respectfully solicit the votes of all voters, irrespective of politics.

Your Servant to Command,
G. H. AYERS,
Candidate for Sheriff.
